THE TRAPPER STORY

At Trapper's Sushi, we strive to create a small town atmosphere at each of our locations; we want to get to know the communities we service. In fact, Trapper encourages all employees to learn at least your name by the time you leave, or in his mind, we haven't done our job.

Trapper O'Keeffe has been preparing sushi since 1993, training under his brother-in-law, Eisuke Sato, at the age of 17 in Reno, Nevada. After Eisuke closed his restaurant, and moved back to Japan, Trapper took what he learned to Washington state. He quickly noticed his style of sushi was very popular, and began searching for an opportunity to open his own restaurant.

In 2004, Trapper opened Sushi Town in Bonney Lake. It wasn't very long before Trapper noticed customers were visiting from throughout Washington, and began to look for opportunities to expand. Trapper's Sushi in Covington, our second location was quickly followed by stores in Puyallup and Bremerton. We're currently proud to be serving 8 communities in Washington state, with hopefully more to come.

These days, while you probably won't find Trapper behind the counter making sushi, you will find a dedicated staff who are just as excited to make your dining experience memorable. Trapper greatly appreciates customers taking the time to share their dining experience, and he encourages both regular and new customers alike to reach out and let him know how we're doing with his mission:

"Learn our customer's names and provide them with the best service and food possible, leaving that customer with a craving to come back again and again"

-Trapper O'Keeffe

SUSHI 101

SUSHI: A Japanese food consisting of cooked vinegared rice combined with other ingredients.

NIGIRI: Small ball of sushi rice topped with raw fish or other seafood.

SASHIMI: Thinly sliced raw meat, usually fish, that is served without rice.

SUSHI LONG ROLL: Sushi rice formed into a long seaweed-wrapped roll, often around strips of vegetables or seafood and sliced into bite-size pieces.

SUSHI HAND ROLL: A sheet of seaweed folded into a cone shape and filled with sushi rice and other ingredients usually vegetables or seafood.

TERIYAKI: A mixture of soy sauce, sake, ginger and other flavorings and used as a marinade or glaze.

TEMPURA: Seafood or vegetables dipped in an egg batter and deep fried to produce a light, crisp crust.

SAKE: Japanese rice wine made by fermenting rice that has been polished to remove the bran and is often served hot.

*Contains raw fish. Consuming raw or undercooked eggs, meat or fish may increase your risk of food-borne illness. Gluten free-options are available but we are not a gluten free kitchen and cannot guarantee 100% gluten free items.
